Sky Racing2 open for the Inter Dominion

Sky Racing is celebrating the TAB.com.au Inter Dominion with all FOXTEL subscribers given open access to enhanced coverage of the qualifying heats next week.

Sky is offering open access to Sky Racing2 (Channel 520) to all FOXTEL subscribers for Saturday February 15. Sky Racing2 is available to Sky Racing+ subscribers.

Harness fans can catch the enhanced coverage of the TAB.com.au Inter Dominion heats on Sky Racing2 at 8pm (AEDT) on Saturday, with all races also broadcast on Sky Racing1.

The special two hour broadcast will see Sky Racing's Greg Hayes and TAB's Adam Hamilton anchor coverage from the Sky studio with live hosts across Australia and New Zealand at the five tracks hosting the qualifying heats.

The enhanced coverage and Sky Racing2 open access is the beginning of an exciting time for harness racing on Sky. Coverage of the TAB.com.au Inter Dominion carnival will include a live broadcast from The Star in Sydney of the Grand Final Barrier Draw on February 24, live coverage from the Breakfast with the Stars at Tabcorp Park Menangle on February 27 and all the action from the Grand Final on Sunday March 2.

Sky Racing's Chief Operating Officer, Brendan Parnell is pleased to open up Sky Racing2 to all FOXTEL subscribers to celebrate the start of the carnival.

"The TAB.com.au Inter Dominion carnival is the premier harness event in Australasia and we've got our top harness experts on board to bring viewers the best coverage of the qualifying heats," Mr Parnell said.

"FOXTEL subscribers can look forward to first class coverage of the entire carnival on Sky Racing."
